Without prejudice to the Seller's right not to accept an order, quotations will be valid for 30 days from date of issue. 2.4 Each order for Goods or Services by the Customer from the Seller shall be deemed to be an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods or Services subject to these Conditions. 2.5 It is the Customer's obligation to ensure that the terms of its order and any applicable specification are complete and accurate. 2.6 The Customer shall be solely responsible for the accuracy of the Customer's designs, drawings, specifications and other data supplied to the Seller by the Customer or the Customer's employees or agents and in conformity with which the Seller is to manufacture the Goods or perform the Services even if the Seller examines, inspects, studies or comments to the Customer upon any such design, drawing, specification or other data. 2.7 The Seller reserves the right without liability to the Customer to make any changes in the specification of the Goods or Services which are required to conform with any applicable statutory or EC requirements or which do not materially affect the quality or performance of the Goods or Services. 2.8 No order placed by the Customer shall be deemed to be accepted by the Seller until a written acknowledgement of order (which may be sent by electronic means) is issued by the Seller or (if earlier) the Seller commences performance of the Services, manufacture of the Goods, their appropriation to the Customer's order or despatch of the Goods to the Customer. Any order shall be accepted entirely at the discretion of the Seller. 2.9 The Customer can only cancel an order (or any part of an order) which the Seller has already accepted, with the Seller's prior agreement in writing. The Seller is not bound to agree to any such cancellation and may complete such order even if the Customer purports to cancel it, and the Seller shall be entitled to charge to the Customer the costs of production to the date of cancellation together with the costs of raw materials and processing charges for all finished goods and work in progress at that time. In addition, the Seller shall be entitled to charge the Customer the Contract cost of all components bought in by the Seller for the Contract irrespective of whether those components were scheduled to have been used by the Seller at the time of suspension, following which, such components shall be treated as free issue goods in accordance with Clause 11.

3 Description of the Goods and Services

3.1 The unit price, quantity, quality, description of and any specification for the Goods or Services shall be set out in the Seller's acknowledgement of order or, in its absence, the Seller's quotation. 3.2 Any advice or recommendation given by the Seller or its employees or agents to the Customer or its employees or agents as to the storage, application or use of the Goods which is not confirmed in writing by the Seller is followed or acted upon entirely at the Customer's own risk.

4 Delivery and Acceptance

4.1 Unless otherwise agreed by all Parties, the Seller will effect delivery of the Goods to the Customer's usual place of business to be in the UK or mainland Europe. 4.2 If for any reason the Customer does not accept delivery of any of the Goods when they are ready for delivery, or the Seller is unable to deliver the Goods on time because the Customer has not provided appropriate instructions, documents, licences or authorisations then the Goods will be deemed to have been delivered, risk passing to the Customer (including for loss or damage caused by the Seller's negligence) and the Seller may: (a) store the Goods until actual delivery whereupon the Customer will be liable for all related costs and expenses (including without limitation storage and insurance); or (b) sell the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deduction of all reasonable storage and selling expenses) charge the Customer for any shortfall below the Contract price. 4.3 The Customer will provide at its expense at the place of delivery adequate and appropriate equipment and manual labour for unloading the Goods. 4.4 The Seller shall be entitled at its discretion to make delivery of the Goods by instalments and to invoice the Customer for each instalment individually. Where the Goods are to be delivered in instalments, each delivery shall constitute a separate contract and failure by the Seller to deliver any one or more of the instalments in accordance with these Conditions or any claim by the Customer in respect of any one or more instalments shall not entitle the Customer to treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated or to refuse to accept subsequent instalments. 4.5 The quantity of any consignment of Goods as recorded by the Seller upon despatch from the Seller's place of business shall be conclusive evidence of the quantity received by the Customer on delivery unless the Customer can provide conclusive evidence proving the contrary. The Seller shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods as being in accordance with the Contract unless (a) within 7 days of the date of delivery of the Goods, the Customer notifies the Seller in writing of any defect or the failure of the Goods to conform with the Contract (which would be apparent upon reasonable inspection and testing of the Goods within 7 days); or (b) the Customer notifies the Seller in writing of any defect or other failure of the Goods to conform with the Contract within a reasonable time where the defect or failure would not be so apparent within 7 days of the date of delivery, failing which the Customer shall not be entitled to reject the Goods and the Seller shall have no liability for such defect or failure, and the Customer shall be bound to pay the price as if the Goods had been delivered in accordance with the Contract. 4.7 Goods, once delivered, may not be returned unless their return is agreed in advance in writing by the Seller and are accompanied by a written record of invoice number, date and a note of reason(s) for their return. 4.8 The Seller will not be liable for any loss (including loss of profit), costs, damages, charges or expenses caused directly or indirectly by any delay in the delivery of the Goods (even if caused by the Seller's negligence), nor will any delay entitle the Customer to terminate or rescind the Contract. 4.9 The Seller shall only be liable for any non-delivery of the Goods (even if caused by the Seller's negligence) if the Customer gives written notice to the Seller within 7 days of the date when the Goods would, in the ordinary course of events, have been delivered. 4.10 If the Customer gives notice to the Seller in accordance with Condition 4.9, the liability of the Seller for non-delivery of the Goods shall be limited to replacing the Goods within a reasonable time or issuing a credit note at the pro rata Contract rate against any invoice raised for such Goods.

5 Passing of Risk and Legal Title

5.1 The Goods shall be at the risk of the Customer from the time of delivery. 5.2 Legal title to and property in the Goods shall remain vested in the Seller (even though they have been delivered and risk has passed to the Customer) until: (a) payment in full, in cash or cleared funds, for all of the Goods has been received by the Seller; and (b) all other money payable by the Customer to the Seller on any other account under the Contract or any other contract has been received by the Seller. 5.3 Until legal title to and property in the Goods passes to the Customer: (a) the Customer shall hold the Goods on a fiduciary basis as the Seller's bailee; (b) the Customer shall store the Goods at its premises in a proper manner in appropriate environmental conditions which adequately protect and preserve the Goods and shall insure them, without any charge to the Seller, and not tamper with any identification upon the Goods or their packaging and shall ensure that they are stored separately from any other goods (whether or not supplied by the Seller) and are clearly identifiable as belonging to the Seller and the Seller shall be entitled to examine any such Goods in storage at any time during normal business hours upon giving the Customer reasonable notice of its intention to do so; (c) the Seller may at any time, on demand and without prior notice, require the Customer to deliver the Goods to the Seller at the Seller's place of business; and (d) the Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods in full and to have paid the Seller in full for the Goods if the Customer does not object to the Seller's statement of account or to the Seller's statement of account when due; (e) for the purposes of this Condition 5 the Seller, its employees, agents and sub-contractors will be entitled to free and unrestricted access to any premises owned, occupied or controlled by the Customer and/or any other location where any of the Goods are situated at any time without prior notice; (f) the Seller shall be entitled to maintain an action against the Customer for the price of the Goods notwithstanding that legal, equitable and beneficial title to and property in the Goods has not passed to the Customer; and (g) the Seller hereby authorises the Customer to use and/or sell the Goods in the normal course of the Customer's business and to pass good title in the Goods to its customers, if they are purchasers in good faith without notice of the Seller's rights. This right shall automatically cease on the occurrence of any event set out in Condition 15 and/or if any sum owed to the Seller by the Customer is not paid when due. If the Customer sells the Goods prior to paying the full price thereof the Customer shall hold the proceeds of sale on trust for the Seller and shall immediately pay the proceeds of the sale into a separate bank account. At the Seller's request, the Customer shall assign to the Seller all claims that the Customer may have against purchasers of the Goods from the Customer. 5.4 The Seller's rights and remedies set out in this Condition 5 are in addition to and shall not in any way prejudice, limit or restrict any of the Seller's other rights or remedies under the Contract or its law or equity.

6 Confidentiality

6.1 The Customer shall keep and procure to be kept secret and confidential all Confidential Information belonging to the Seller disclosed or obtained as a result of the relationship of the parties under the Contract and shall not use nor disclose the same save for the purposes of the proper performance of the Contract or with the prior written consent of the Seller. Where disclosure is made to any employee, consultant or agent, it shall be done subject to obligations equivalent to those set out in these Conditions and the Customer shall use its best endeavours to procure that any such employee, consultant or agent complies with such obligations. The Customer shall be responsible to the Seller in respect of any disclosure or use of such Confidential Information by a person to whom disclosure is made. 6.2 The Customer shall not make any announcement or otherwise publicise the existence of or disclose to any person the provisions of the Contract without the prior written consent of the Seller.

7 Contract Price

7.1 Unless otherwise agreed by the Seller in writing, the price for the Goods shall be the price set out in the Seller's quotation to the Customer. 7.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing the price for the Goods and/or Services shall be exclusive of any value added tax or other similar taxes or levies and all costs or charges in relation to carriage, freight and insurance all of which amounts the Customer will pay, where appropriate, in addition when it is due to pay for the Goods and/or Services.

No payment shall be deemed to have been received until the Seller has received cleared funds. 8.3 Notwithstanding any other provision, all payments payable to the Seller under the Contract shall become due immediately upon termination of this Contract for whatever reason. 8.4 If any sum due from the Customer to the Seller under the Contract or any other contract is not paid on or before the due date for payment then all sums then owing by the Customer to the Seller shall become due and payable immediately and, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Seller, the Seller shall be entitled to: (a) cancel or suspend its performance of the Contract or any order including suspending deliveries of the Goods and suspending delivery of any other goods to the Customer and suspending provision of the Services or other services until arrangements as to payment or credit have been established which are satisfactory to the Seller; (b) appropriate any payments made by the Customer to the Seller in respect of any Goods (or any goods or services supplied under any other contract between the Customer and the Seller) or as the Seller may think fit; (c) require the Customer to pay for all other Goods or for its performance of the Services at the Seller's place of business; and (d) the Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods in full and to have paid the Seller in full for the Goods if the Customer does not object to the Seller's statement of account when due; (e) for the purposes of this Condition 8 the Seller, its employees, agents and sub-contractors will be entitled to free and unrestricted access to any premises owned, occupied or controlled by the Customer and/or any other location where any of the Goods are situated at any time without prior notice; (f) the Seller shall be entitled to maintain an action against the Customer for the price of the Goods notwithstanding that legal, equitable and beneficial title to and property in the Goods has not passed to the Customer; and (g) the Seller hereby authorises the Customer to use and/or sell the Goods in the normal course of the Customer's business and to pass good title in the Goods to its customers, if they are purchasers in good faith without notice of the Seller's rights. This right shall automatically cease on the occurrence of any event set out in Condition 15 and/or if any sum owed to the Seller by the Customer is not paid when due. If the Customer sells the Goods prior to paying the full price thereof the Customer shall hold the proceeds of sale on trust for the Seller and shall immediately pay the proceeds of the sale into a separate bank account.
